8 October 1985

Thank you for your letter of 23 September to the Director offering to be of assistance.

Although the Central Intelligence Agency appreciates your offer, we strongly advise against your undertaking any activities similar to those described in your letter. Espionage is a very serious business and the consequences of your activities could jeopardize your safety and that of your wife. Consequently, we strongly advise that you limit your activities to those of a legitimate medical doctor so you do not get into any difficulty in any communist country you visit.

Again, we appreciate your offer but respectfully must decline.

Sincerely,

Public Affairs
